Social and Personal

as entertaining is concerned, and the had a very gay time of it. Two germans, a ten at Brook Hill, and the receptions for the Southern Educational Association have

The New Century to the Old, Greeting,

"The New Century to the Old, Greeting," with Mrs. Stephen Putney chairman.
To-merrow evening the Christmas dance of the Richmond German Chuh will be given at the Massonic Temple.
Mrs. Sally R. McAdams, of No. 214 West
Pracklin Street, will give a dance tomorrow evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Equise McAdams.
Tuesday a reception will be given at the residence of Mrs. Devatur Axiell by the George Washington Memorial Society.
The same evening an amateur theatrical will be given at "Brook Hill."
Miss Namile Morris will give a card party on New Year's night.

on group evening also hand to be all enterisin at cards in honor of her exect, Miss Riely.

The Richmond Educational Association has been delightfully entertained during Mansion in their honor.

oon parlor, in which the receivstood, was beautifully decorated Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Mrs. Alexander Cameron, Mrs. C. V. Carrington, Mrs. Frederick Pleasants, Mrs. J. Alston Cabell, Mrs. A. B. Comm, and Miss Mildred Lee, Misses Tyler and Miss Nickerson, of Warrensburg, Mo., assisted. The rooms were throughd during the

Among those who called were; Mrs. Elizabeth Howlett Trainum, Mr. James M. Green, Trenton, N. J.; H. C. Pritchett, Texas; President William L. Prother, of Texas University, Austin, Texas; Mrs. Isabel Harvey Peterg, New Orleans; Mr. Walter Le Conte Sievens, Miss Frances Walton Ryan, Mr. George Summey, Clarksville, Tenn.; Professor Charles K Prancis, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Morris, Mr. D. H. Hill, Miss Daisy O'Neale, South Carolina; Mass Alma Lindner, Celonel Johnson, Mr. R. J. Preston, Mbingdon, Va.; Dr. Davis, and Dr. Dabney, of Tennessee; Mr. R. B. Fulton, president of the Passociation, Dr. H. A. White, of Washington and Lee University; Prof. Almond, of Hampden-Sidney College; Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Washington, D. C.; Professors Moreland, Currell, Stevens and Hague, of Zas'M. Butler, of New York; Mr. Frank M. Smith, of Concord; Miss Rennolds, of Farmwille, Miss Willette Allen, of Tennessee; Miss Pattle S. Hill, of Kentucky; Dr. Noah K. Davis, of University of Virginia; Miss Minnie Macfeat, of South Carolina; Miss Bennett, of Arkansas; Miss, J. H. Phillips, of Birmingham; Prof. Hugh S. Eird, Mr. Lyman Hall, of Georgia; Dr. Charles W. Kent, of University of Virginia; Miss Annette D. Tugalls, Miss Coulling, Miss Cye Roberts, Miss Hopkins, of Georgia; Miss Hart, of Baltimore; Miss Hodd, of New Orleans, and many others.

hursday evening, from 9 to 12 the Richmond Educational As-n tendered the Southern Educaas of the Christmas-tide. Crim carried out the color scheme. ne chandeliers, mirrors and mantels

Scott received, assisted by Mrs. Julian P. Thomas, Mrs. Warner Moore, Mrs. James Crump, Mrs. Charles Bosher, Mrs. A. J. Montague, Mrs. Albert Bruce, Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. Albert Hill, Miss Binford, Miss Frayser, Miss Robinson, Miss Edizabeth Farls, Miss Robinson, Miss Lucy Glison, Miss Boxie Scott, Mrs. B. Valentine, Mrs. Carlton Jackson, Miss Carle Lee Campbell and Miss Bilss.

The young ladies assisting in serving the excellent supper were Misses Avis Grant, Fannie Wortham, Essie Archer, Allee Boyle, Louisa and Anna Purcell, Lora Cramp and Carlie Minor

There were a very large number of allers, and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

On Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the visiting kindergarteners were charmingly entertained at an elegant tea at Miss Robinsan's school, No. 98 Floyd Avenue. The rooms were beautifully decerated in holly and codar. Refreshments were served by the various kindergarteners in

Mr. Royall E. Cabell, investigator of actional to Cascal, investigator of actional field and read and read to the American Bridge Company's bridge and viaduct work in Virginia and North Carolina, 's spending the holidays at his home, at Variety Mills,

The Misses Stewart, of Brook Hill, gave a beautiful tea Thursday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock in honer of Mrs. E. Rand-olph Williams and Mrs. Julien Binford,

Miss Annie Stewart and the guests of Miss Annie Stewart and the guests of honor received.

Miss Lucy Stewart and Miss Lassiter, of Petersburg, served the egg-nog.

The young ladles assisting in the dining-toom were Misses Maria Williams, Martha Bryan, of the University of Virginia; Morris, of Louisville; Eda Atkinson and Sally and Bertha Randolph. Among the guests were Misses Martha Byrd, Evelyn Gardan Lossebine Putner, Mabel Walker, Gordon, Josephine Putney, Mabei Walker, Annie and Lelia Gray, Alene Slokes, Spil-man, Mary and Ella Binford; Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster Williams, Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Murray McGuire, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Carrington, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Virginius New-ton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bemiss; Messrs. John, Stewart and Thomas Bryan, Dougand Allan Tabbit, Randolph Helladay, Lewis and Berkeley Williams, C. W. Grandy, Norfolk, C. Pinckney, Dr. B. M. Randolph, Dr. William B. Mason, Ormond and John Young, Granville and Palmer Gray, B. Stewart Hume, Spencer Carter, Heth Dabney, of the University of Vir-ginia; Joseph Wilmer, of Madison county, Va.; Carter Branch, Henry Frant, and many others.

On Saturday afternoon, January 5th, the Eve of Epiphany, at 4 o'cloca, there will be a service of intercession for missions at Grace Episcopal Churen. It is hoped that all persons interested in this subject will attend.

The Christmas german of the Tuesday

"CORRECT DRESS FOR MEN AND BOYS."

New Year's callers should be properly clothed. If your wardrobe is deficient, we can furnish you with everything necessary. Tuxedo, Full Dress and Prince Albert Suits, Inberness and Rag-lan Overcoats, correct Shirts and Cravats; also Silk & Opera Hats. Gans-Rady Company

Entire Building. 1005 East Main Street. Opposite Postoffice.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Aming those present were. Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Elair, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hawes, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph White, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Carey, Mrs. Henningham Spilmen, Misses Davenport, Jennings, Cooke, Menster, Lay Crquiart, Marias Minales, Alene Stokes, Helen Quaries, Amy Werth, Sadie Sutton, Salile Reid Anderson, Lay Tyler, Helen James, Danville: Elsie Harrison, Petersburg: Pauline Powers, Virginia Boyd, Marie Archer, Daisy Chamberlayne, Miss Young, of Winston, N. C.; Messrs, Leake, Daughtrey, McAdams, Wartson, Mullen, Smith, Reed, Brock, Barber, Cabell, Stringfellow, Skipwith, Taylor, Elett, Fitzgerald, Quaries, Hubbird, Miller, Smallman, Jones, Williams, Bowe, Tyer, McKinney, Hobson, Davis, Lea, Cooke, De Treville, Harvie, Pollard, Edmund, Brooks, Coles, Harrison, Tanner, Vaugnan, Coke, Burnett, Carrington, Moseley, Wight, Sands and Weddell.

One of the most enjoyable affairs ever given by the Jefferson Club was the "Lawn Party" ball on Thursday evening. The club was elaborately decument the search of the searc ning. The club was elaborately eccorated in palms and flowers. The ball-room was transformed into a veritable summer garden with the artistic decorations. All about the wall tall cedar trees were arranged. From a tall tree in the centre lighted Japanese lanterns were strung to the other trees. The scene was a beautiful one and made a fit setting for the summer attire worn by the The club was elaborately in palms and flowers. setting for the summer attire worn by guests. Behind a screen of paims and trees on the stage the musicians were stationed. About midnight an elegant supper was served and dancing was rened until a late hour.

There were an unsually large number of dancers, and many out-of-town guests

A most attractive and beautiful lunch-con was given by Mrs. C. E. Buck in honor of her aughter, Miss Ella Buck, Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

The handsome dining room was exquisitely decorated, Red was the prevailing tint. The twenty-two guests were about a large round table. In the centre was a tall vase of the flaming "pointestras," and at either end were wreaths of holly berries around the silver candelabra, bearing the crimson-shaded candles. The soft light of illuminated crimson tulips added to the scene. After the luncheon Mr. Moses May entertained the children with an exhibition The handsome dining room was ex ertained the children with an exhibition

Thèse present were Misses Ella Buck, Roberta and Barbara Trigg, Delia Came-ren, Kate Seddon, Julia Joynes, Eliza-beth Preston, Mary Butler, Frances Mybeth Freston, Mary Janes, Frances My-ers, Courtnay Crump, Martha Robinson, Lily West, Julia Osterioh, Carrie Ren-nolds, Helen Adams, Ellen West, Meta Randolph, Warfield Crenshaw, Marie Potts, Arneta Cussens and Julia Keith.

Miss Annie Coleman Sydnor gave : charming reception Thursday evening at the home on Grove Avenue, in honor of ther guest, Miss Grace Jones, of Fredericksburg, from $:30 to 12 o'clock.

The hail and parlor were pretty in the Christmas greens. The color scheme in the dining-room was pink and green. The curtains, mantels and chandeliers were garlanded with running cedar and table. The young ladies receiving were Misses Anne Coleman Sydnor, Grace Jones and Lazzie Winston. Misses Mary Drewry and Mattie Fourpurean served punch and Misses Bessie Sydnor, Ollie Vickery of Saratoga, and Vi nia Sydnor assisted in the dining-

The nurses of the Old Dominion Hospital gave a reception Wednesday after-noon from 5 to 7 o'clock at the Nurses' Settlement, on North Seventh Street, and from 9 to 12 o'clock they held their annual ball. The halls and drawing-comes were bright with the Christmas greens, in the front room were tall cases of American Beauties, and the dining-room was in white and green. In the centre of the table was a shower of the centre of the tabe was a shower of white roses. The mantels and chandeliers were garlanded with evergreens. The nurses receiving were: Miss Ellerson, representing the alamnae; Misses Gulley, Cocke and Minor, the Settlement nurses, and the pupil nurses receiving were: Misses Curling, Clopton, Stiff and Araki San. The nurses all were their uniforms, except the dainty little Japanese maiden, who made a pretty picture in her graceful native costume y picture in her graceful native costume of exquisite pule blue silk.

Miss Curling presided at the coffee ta-

Among the guests were Dr. George Ben Johnston, Dan Coleman, Robert F. Williams, Christopher Tompkins, Ennion Williams, Caffon Miller, Bosher, Levy, Davidson, Garcin, Mrs. Mann, Davidson, Garcin, Mrs. Grace Shields, Mrs. S. L. Bloomberg, Miss Ce-leste Berry, Mrs. Boudar, Mrs. Gill, Misses M. J. Moore, Coralie Johnston, Minnie Swaney, Euphan Washington, Mae Clung, C. V. Austin, Rosa Van Vort and Hudson.

At the ball in the evening the pupil nurses of the training school and some of the alumnae were present. All wore

Miss Florence Thalhimer entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening at her home, No. 1007 West Grace Street, in honor of her guest, Miss Minna Rosenheim, of Baltimore.

The early part of the evening was spent in games, Mr. Edward Lovenstein win-ning the first prize, and Mr. Samuel Levy the consolation.

the dining-room. The color scheme of the handsomely appointed table was plnk.
The guests were Misses Rosenheim, Bal-timore; Alma Kohn, Norfolk; Elsie New-man, Sayannuh; Ella Belle Cohen, l'etersburg; Juliet Strause, Rose Goldenberg, Helen Ezekiel, Rosa Block, Rhonie Hutzer, Hazel Strause, Florence Levy. ler, Hazel Strause, Florence Levy, Edna Bloomberg and Messrs, Lee A. Whitlock, Edward Lovenstein, Louis F. Leibermuth, Walter Whitlock, Louis Myer, Percy Ezekiel, Harold Bloomberg, Harry Op-penheim, Melvin L. Stern, Sam Levy, William Heller, Sidney Gunst, Sol. Pearl-stein, of the University of Virginia.

The No-Name Club held a delightful entertainment Christmas night at their club-rooms, on East Grace Street. The Club was given on Thursday evening, and was a thoroughly enjoyable affair. The Masonic Temple was prettily decorated, and the Christmas spirit of good cheer and the Christmas spirit of good cheer bonald and Lundon Welford, Henry Taywas in evidence. After the dance a de-green. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Scott, L. O. Miller, W. S. McCoy, J. Stone, Dr. M. D. Hoge, Jr., J. Q James. and others

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Glenn, of Glenn Mary. South Hoston, Va., for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Florence Glenn, to Mr. James T. Parkinsen, of this city. The marriage will be solemnized at noon Wed-hesday, January 9th, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Parkinson will be at home after March 1st, at No. 706 West Frank-

A Christmas party was given Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Stout, on South Cherry Street, in honor of her children, Misses Alice, Louise and Master Edwin Stout.

About forty children enjoyed the hospitality of these little ones.

tality of these little ones.

Mrs. Hobson, a teacher of St. James Sunday-school, entertained her class at her residence, North Twenty-ninth Street, Wednesday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock, Masters Taylor Hawkins and Roscoe Cosby received prizes for punctuality, perfect lessons, and good conduct the whole year. All the rest of the class were remembered by little takens of their teacher's love ed by little tokens of their teacher's love.

Mrs. Thomas E. Ballard, of Washington, D. C., is the guest, for a few days, of Mrs. M. M. Gaines.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society tendered an enjoyable reception to the Southern Eudcational Association last the Museum of the Southern Eudcated Southern Eudcate evening from 9 to 12 o'clock at the Mua brilliant appearance. An orchestra ren-dered sweet strains throughout the eve-dered sweet strains throughout the evening.

The receiving party formed a semicircle in the Solid South room, and here they welcomed the many callers. The ladies receiving were: Mrs Alfred Gray, Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. Anne Grant, Mrs. H. Theodore Ellyson, Mrs. Virginius Morgan Robinson, Mrs. Lizzie Cary Daniels. The following Vice-Regents received in their respective rooms: Mrs. Norman V. Randelph, Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mrs. John W. Gordon, Mrs. H. A. Claiborne, Miss Katherine Stiles, Mrs. C. W. P. Brock, Mrs. J. H. Drake, Mrs. J. R. Mc-Intosh, Mrs. Stephen Putner, Mrs. George P. Stacy and Miss Mattie Harris.

The gentlemen on the Advisory Board assisted the ladies: They were: Judge George L. Christian, Judge E. C. Minor, Colonel W. E. Cutshaw, Colonel John Purcell, Messrs, J. Taylor Ellyson, R. S. Bosher, B. B. Munford, E. V. Valentine, Virginius Newton and Dr. James P. Smith

Virginius Newton and Dr. James P.

A beautiful luncheon was given by Mr. Berkeley Williams at his home on East Grace Street yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The decorations were holly and resistance.

mistletoe.

His guests were Mrs. John L. Williams, Misses Berta Nolting. Elise Davenport, Allene Stokes, Elizabeth Weddell, Evelyn Gordon, Elizabeth Whitlock, Maria Williams, and Messrs. Robert Tunstall, C. W. Grandy and R. E. Lee Taylor, of Norfolk: Frayser, of Philadelphia; Blagden, of Yale; Rosserton, of New York, and Matthewson, of Brooklyn.

The regular meeting of the Colonial Dames took place Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Herbert H. Chai-borne, on West Grace Street. Twenty new members were elected. A handsome to Mrs. Reginald Gilham in gratitude for faithful rvice. The was made by Mrs. James Doole Gilham made a fitting response.

A valuable present was sent to the Dames by Miss Margaret Vowell Smith, of Alexandria. It is a type written manu-script copy of her work, "The Stately Homes of Fairfax," exquisitely illus-

Mrs. R. A. Gibson read a set of resolutions on the death of Hon. William Wirt Henry, a member of the Advisory Board. A letter was received from Mr. Bar-ringer, of the University of Virginia. thanking the Dames for the gold medal

After the meeting tea was served.

A delightful feature of the evening was a drill in Virginia history, which the hostess gave her guests, To each she handed a slip of paper containing an historical query whose answer was found by pulling a blue ribbon which hung from a bowl filled with white chrysauthe mums. In the bowl were dainty sachet bags with the crest of the society, and on these were answers.

The Dames were very apt and found little difficulty in finding the right answers to the questions. The house was beautifully decorated in holly, mistletoe and white and yellow ehrysanthemums,

In the dining-room the decorations were in blue and yellow. The renaissance was spread over yellow and blue. The blue candles were shaded in yellow and in the center of the table was a large sil-ver bowl, filled with marigolds. In the half the ladies gathered round the punch bowl and drank the health of the Dames

Among the ladies present were Mcs-dames Gibson, Pleasants, Chemian dames Gibson, Pleasants, Coleman, Thomas, Hall, Robins, Davenpert, Lefroy, Brock, Charles R. Robins, Henry Taylor, Farland, Addison, Dashiell, Lightfoot, Steward, Rucker, Hunter, Smith, Drake, Gilham, Hoge, Chalkley, Ferrall, Ren-nolds, Perkins, Misses Knox, Pleasants and Perkins.

The guests of honor were Miss Mildred Lee, Mrs. W. S. Stanard, Mrs. Thomas Williamson, Mrs. Alston Cabell, Mrs. J. B. Lightfoot, Miss Louise Claiborne, Mrs. Ellett and Miss Jennie Ellett.

The Christmas german of the Friday Club, danced Friday evening at Masonic Temple, was a thoroughly enjoyable af-Mr. A. Tyler Brock led with grace and skill the pretty figures. The attendance was very large, there being quite a number of visitors. The music was furnished by Thilow's orchestra, and the dancers were:

Miss Watkins with Mr. A. B. Chandler, Miss Mary James with Dr. S. H. Easley, Miss De Saussure with Mr. Frank T. Sutton, Miss Marie Lightfoot with Mr. Richard P. Winston, Miss Snowden, of New Orleans, with Mr. W. S. Rodgers, Miss Morton with Mr. A. J. Belvin, Miss M. C. Daughtrey with Mr. Daughtrey, Miss Martha Byrd with Mr. Elmore

Miss Edyth White Wita Mr. Eddie Pierce, Miss Jennie Hughes wth Frank Hill, Miss Mills, of Ashland, with Bruce Bowe, Miss Mills, of Ashland, with Bruce Bowe, Miss Belvin with Mr. Sam Tyler, Miss Marie Archer with A. Murat Willis, Miss Sophie White with Mr. C. Lee Morrison, Miss Rose Morris with Mr. de Amen, of Balti-Rose Morris with Mr. de Amen, of Baltimore; Miss Pendleton of Ashland, with Mr. Paul Shafer, Miss Smith with Robert S. Rives, Miss Jane Fisher with Mr. Howard Sutton, Miss Elizaeth Fisher with T. Verner Moore, Miss Munford, of Baltimore, with Mr. Robbis, Miss Powell, of Baltimore, with Maxey Deitrick.

Among the stags were: Messrs, Crump Tucker, David Lynch, Charles M. Grant, Samuel R. Carter, Poyd Bland, Edwin Tanner, Lancaster and W. D. Cooke.

Among the chappfores were: Mr. and Tanner, Lancaster and W. D. Cooke.

Among the chaperoies were: Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Blankenship, Mr. and Mrs.
John Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Palmer,
Mr. and Mrs. Austh Brockenbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs.
T. Alfred Cary, Mr. and Mrs. John Farland, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lafferty, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Vhite, Mr. and Mrs. A.
H. Sands and Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus
Blair.

The hall was elaborately decorated with palms and evergrens, which added very much to the Xms Friday, Mr. W. M. Taliaferro is president of the German Club.

Mrs. George Pender gave an elegant Mrs. George Pender gave an eigant dinner at 6 o'clock last evening. In honor of her niece, Mis. Nellie Hodge Gordon. The decorations vere in American Beauties and holly, Those enjoying Mrs. Pender's hospitalty were Misses Nellie Gordon, Ella Godwin, of Wytheville; Mildred Woodwarl, Liesa Archer, Flora Cameron, Evelya Glenn, Messrs. John Gravatt, James Ball, Garner Denmead, of Paltimore. Emil. Bauchman William Baltimore: Emily Baughman, William Archer and Ernes Schoen.

Miss Essie Arcler entertained at cards Friday evening in honor of her guests: Misses Louise Siden, of Snowden, and Mary Ruffin, of Jetersburg. The decora-tions were in red. Progressive hearts was played. The scor-cards were beautiful and unique. Thy were hand-painted spots of the calls. Supper was served after the game. Miss Archer's guests were: Misses Miss Archer's guests were: Misses Helen Stevens, Ianny Wortham, Louise Selden, of Snowen; Mary Ruffin, of Petersburg: Namie Morris, Nellie Gor-don, Ella Gordor of Wytheville: Mary Beirne; Messrs, Allan Newton, William Turner, Joseph Jeonard, Ernest Schoen, Gilmer Minor, Iryng Blair, Charles Bowe, William Archer ad Paul Stevens. William Archer and Paul Stevens.

Mrs. E. A. Waten entertained at cards Friday evening it honor of her guest, Miss Katherine Patton at her residence, No. 16 West Grace Stree. The rooms were prettily decorated it holly and red shaded candles. After the game supper was Served on small tibles.

Those enjoying Mrs. Warren's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. George Warren, Misses Kate Pation, Lulie Whitlock. ren, Misses Køte Patton, Lulle Whitlock, Adair Minor, Elly Pegram, Martha Lundy, Louise Herbrt, Fannie Jenkins, Kate Goddin, Lucy Christian, Rosalle Fontain Jones, Nort Houston, Fannie Bland; Messrs, Noman Yarbrough, Allen and Henry Warlen, J. Conrad Hutcheson, Percy Pembeton, Charles Larus, Stuart Cooke, Ton Leary, Percy Montague, Stuart Christian, Boyd Bland, Richard Bidgood and James Merriwether Winston.

Mrs. John W. Gordon gave a beautiful tea Friday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock in honor of her daughter. Miss Nelle Ibdge Gordon, who is home from school for the holidays.
The rooms were lovely in their Christmas deporations and profision of white carnations, Among the guests were Ella Goodwin, of Wytheville; Leisa Archer Mildred Woodward, Elise Parkinwere! son, Evelyn Glenn, Virginia Chamber layne, Kitty Lancaster, Emily Gravatt Mattie Lambert, Bernard Jocke, Mary Beirne, Anabel Forbes, Alice Shafer, Helen Stevens, Jennie Bland, Alice Doyle, Margaret Carrington, Bessie Upshur, Fanny Warwick, Helen Lethrop, Essie Archer, Louisa Purcell, Nellia Davenport, Sue Gray, and Avis Grant.

The Misses Edwards gave a charming card party Friday evening at their home, No. 1011 West Main Street. The recens were heautifully decorated. The color scheme in the bull was red, and the parlors in pink and green. The chan deliers, mirrors and doors were heavily draped in cedar, the mantels were banked

Hard-painted pink fans were used as score eards, and tiny bells tied with pink score cards, and tiny bells tied with pink ribbos served as markers. Six-handed euchir was played, After the game an elegant supper was served.

Ther guests were: Misses Alma Lindner, Trevillan, Taylor, Lipscombe, Rowe, Susie Edwards, Lyne and Sannie Moseley, Glisch, Berenice Edwards, Lear, Taliaferro, Wortham; Messrs, Charles Francis, of Alanta; Samuel Neal, Charles Zinke, Carr Bowers, Henry Wilkerson, Harvey Brown, Percy Tallaferro, Richard Wills, Brown, Percy Taliaferro, Richard Wills W + Doran, E. H. Smith, James Rich-Fayette Wortham, Clarence Clifon, Burke Slaughter, and Dr. Lawrence Talaferro.

M's. Webb gave a very pretty card party Fritay evening at her home, No. 315 East Franklin street. After the game refresh-ments were served.

The guests present were: Mesdames dary and Gee, Misses Webb, Sarah and Gaw and Gee, Misses Webb, Sarah and Biar Harvie, Gertrude Buckner, Mattie Reynolds, Belle Norment, Olive Gibson, Lela Scurvy, Bessie Stucky; Messrs, Jno, and Edward Harvie, R. H. Norment, C. W. Gary, Ryland Mitchell, W. W. Webb, Dr. E. W. Gee, Dr. J. Richard Williams, William Binford H. B. Norment and H.

Dr. E. W. Gee, Dr. J. Richard Williams, William Binford, H. B. Norment and H. H. Foster, of Washington.

Fiday afternoon at the close of the meeting of the kindergarten department of the Southern Education Association, the speakers of the evening, visiting kindergarteners and interested friends repaired en masse to ested friends repaired en masse to Robinson's School, No. 508 Floyd Mis. Robinson's School, No. 908 Floyd Avenue, where an elaborate tea was serv-ed by the kindergarteners of the city. The rooms were most attractively dec-orated in holly and cedar, and the large number of guests greatly enjoyed the pleasant event.

Miss Pattie Hill, president of the Kin-degarten Department of the Southern Educational Association, was the honored guest of the evening. At $15 octock she adoressed a large audience of mothers and others interested in the kindergarten

McGuire Memorial Association will meet at 4:30 P. M. on Tuesday next at 310 East

The Executive Committee of the Hunter

A. Kelley, the most eminent surgeon in Baltimore writes the following: "I am very giad to hear that some substantial memorial is to be erected to Hunter McGuire. He was a rare man, and we shall scarcely see his like again. He we shall scarcely see his like again. He belonged to the days when there were giants in surgery, and he was everywhere recognized as the Goliath of the South, standing with Agnew and Gross and Mott and the other great leaders, who man on these occasions.

The second evening entertainmnt of the Woman's Club will be held Monday, January 7th, at 8:30 o'clock. Each member has the privilege of bringing a gentleman on these occasions.

Mr. Edward Howard Griggs, M. A. staff lecturer in literature, ethics and philosophy of the University Extension, Society, is to be the attraction. The subject of his lecture is "Goethe's Faust; The Faust Problem and the Spirit of Modern Literature."

The Faust Problem and the Spirit of Mod-ern Literature."

Mr. Griggs, who formerly occupied a chair in Leland-Stanford University, is thoroughly equipped in knowledge of the latest doctrines of science as well as in fa-miliarity with imaginative literature and in ethical insight. His latest book, the "New Humanism," is a brilliant plea for the new gospel of positive culture and progress. As a lecturer he has been most progress. As a lecturer he has been most successful, at once gaining the sympathy of his audience by the magnetic force of his personality and the picturesqueness of his style.

of his personality and the picturesqueness of his style.

Miss Ruby Chewning's "at home" was an occasion of much delight to her friends last Friday evening from 8:30 to 12 o'clock. Among the guests were: Misses Brent and Ellen Witt, Marie Cranz, Bessie Ryland, Coutrney Rountree, Julia Keith, Alice Weisiger, Annie Sydnor, Grace Jones, Lizzette Winston, Louise Jenkins, Virginia Chamberlayne, Ellen Glenn, Emma Clarke, Sallie Cottrell and Mamie Martin; Masters Russell and Alfred Crenshaw, Peachy Ryland, Wellington Winston, Clinton Boyd, John Christian, Willie Augustine, Everett Waddey, Freddie Pollard, John Gwathney, Edgar Russell, Robert Weisiger, Marshall and Nelson Vaughan, George Ready and Thomas Bigger.

Vaughan, George Ready and Thomas Bigger.

After enjoying many pleasant, gleeful games, every one entered the exquisitely decorated dining-room, where delicious refreshments were plenteously served.

The Christmas catertainment of the Sabbath-school of the Church of the Covenant will take place at the church on Tuesday, January 1, 1991, at 7 o'clock P. M. As usual the entertainment will be M. As usual the entertainment will be in keeping with the season and highly entertaining to the children. The friends of the school and church are invited to be

Mr. Joseph McAnerney, of New York, is the guest of Mr. Douglaz Gordon, and is attending the convention of the Dalta Pole.

Professor P. Heath Dabney is the guest of Mrs. Stewart, at Brook Hill.

Miss Maria Newton Williams gave an elegant card party Friday evening at her home, on East Grace Street.

Mrs. Gideon Davenport entertained the rends of her daughter, Miss Mamie Davenport, last evening. Mr. William R. Trigg, Jr., gave an evening party to his friends at the resi-dence of his parents, Mt. and Mrs. Wil-liam R. Trigg, No. 711 West Franklin Stread

The Misses Williams will continue to be at home informally to their friends on Saturday evenings after 9 o'clock during January.

The evenings on which they have re-ceived during December have been delight-ful ones, the excellent music being a special and delightful feature.

Mrs. J. A. Mack, who has been on a visit to Mrs. D. B. Kahnweller, has returned to her home in Wilmington, N. C. While here, Mrs. Mack was the reipient of much flattering attention.

Miss Annabel Jenkins has returned from

Hon. and Mrs. Beverly Munford left for Hampton yesterday morning.

The choir of Centenary Church was entertained last evening by Mr. Shepherd Webb, the director, at his residence, No. South First Street.

Miss Carrie Kaufmann entertained a number of her young friends delightfully on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock at the residence of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. I. Kaufmann, on West Grace Street. After several interesting games refershments were served. The ta-ble was beautifully decorated in holly and carnations.

and carnations.

Among the guests were: Misses Lillian Obendorfer, of Norfolk; Caroline Hirsh, of Fredericksburg; Carrie Stern, Etta Thalhimer, Lily Eichel, Belle and Heien Block, Sadie Helistern, Amy Bloomberg, Mina Gans, Pauline Meyers, Corinne Eiseman, Hannah Heller, Adele Stern and Julia Nelson.

Miss Lucie Clair Atkinson entertained the Thursday Club on last Thursday ev the Thursday Club on last Thursday evening. The library, in which progressive enchre was played, was prettily decorated with holly and mistictoe. At 12 o'clock a delightful supper was served. The dining-room also was lighted with the Christmas colors.

ing-room also was lighted with the Christmas colors.

The first prizes, a jewel case of holly design and a dainty key-ring, were won by Miss Ethel Walker Atkinson and Mr. George B. Christian. The second prizes were given to Miss Minnie Kidwell and Mr. Howard Lovell. Mrs. Charles Reeves, of New York, kent score.

Miss Etta Sycle will leave next week for Philadelphia.

Mrs. M. S. Alvey and little daughter, Marie, and Miss Bossieux are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Hankins, in Williamsburg.

Miss Edna Barnes, of Boulevard, is in the city.

The Emma Andrews Whist Club will meet next Friday afternoon at 101 East Franklin Street. The Misses Albert, of Russell county, are spending the week with Mrs. Mary

Grant, No. 1704 Grove Avenue. Miss Elsie Newman, of Birmingham, is

NOT HEREDITARY

In the main, consumption is not hereditary; it is infec-

Low vital force is hereditary; which gives consumption its chance. An infection starts

Between the two, the crop is a big one: about one-sixth of the human race.

We suppose it needn't be more than 5 per cent, if people

Accommodation. Rothert & C:

We Want You to Know

That Credit is Absolutely Free at Our Store.

You Pay Nothing for the 4TH & BROAD STS ...

STORES KEPLINGER & CO. ROTHERT & CO.

ROTHERT&CO OLIVER ROTHERT RICHMOND.VA ALTOUNA PA

Cook Stoves and Ranges. Triumph Steel Ranges, Best and Cheapest.

Wilton Velvet, Axminster, Tapestry Brussels, Two and Three-Ply Ingrain Carpets.

All Carpets made, laid and lined free. "Cash or Credit."

Brass Beds, Iron Beds, Cribs, Cots and Mattresses, Stylish Odd Dressers and Washstands, in Oak, Bird's-Eye and Mahogany. Chiffoniers and Wardrobes.

Parlor, Chamber, Dining-Room and Kitchen Furniture. Largest and Best Assorted Stock. Lowest Prices; Easiest Terms of Payment.

ROTHERT & CO.,

4TH and BROAD STREETS, Richmond's Complete Home Furnishers.

Mrs. T. William Pemberton entertained Mrs. T. William Pemberton entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Miss Katherine Patton.

Mrs. Lucy Powen, ... Baltimore, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Mary Delaney Ball.

The subject at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock will be, "The Old Century or the New Century," by Mrs. Stephen Putney.

The Ladies' Matinee Musicale will meet next Saturday evening, at $130 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Stevens, $19 Floyd Avenue. Members are requested to note the day and hour, and are entitled to invite a guest each, this being "open day."

The programme will be rendered by Mr. Fronani, of Washington, who has be ich a favorite here, and by Miss Dilrd, assisted by a vocalist. No bonnets will be worn.

The Confederate Memorial Literary So clety will hold its regular monthly meeting, that was postponed from last Wednesday, on hext Wednesday, January 2nd, at 11 A. M.

Miss Corinne Strause will leave Tues-day for Washington to spend a few days with Mrs. Saks, of that city.

Miss Fannie Gresham, of Atlanta, Is the guest of Miss Blanche Ragland, on Governor Street.

Miss Lena Hancock is home from an extended European tour. Miss Elizabeth Martin, of Norfolk, will be the guest of Miss Rebeccah Danger-field Gordon after January 3d.

Miss Fannie Coleman, of Halifax, has returned to Richmond, and is the guest of Mrs. Fred. Pleasants, No. 310 Shafer

Mrs. John Middleton, of Philadelphia

Mrs. John Middleton, of Prinducipina, is a guest of Mrs. Thos. Bolling, No. 619
West Franklin Street.

Miss Lena Boeller entertained a number of her friends Friday night at a mistletee party at her residence, No. 625 Worth Fourth Street. North Fourth Street.

mouth, is the guest of Miss Marie Prosser for the holidays.

Mrs. Charles Belvin has returned from

Miss Annette Mercer Jones, of Ports

Danville, where she was visiting relatives.

Miss Etta Thalhimer leaves to-day for New York, where she will be the guest f her aunt, Mrs. Kohut.

The wedding of Miss Grace Wilkinson,

Mr. Walter Willeth is visiting friends

The wedding of Miss Grace Wilkinson, only daughter of Mr. Walter O. Wilkinson, organist of "All Saints" Church; to Mr. James J. Govey, of New York, will take place at "All Saints' Church on Monday, December 31st, at 8:39 o'clock, Miss Marie Lishman will be the bridesmald. The bride will be given away by her brother, Mr. Herbert O. Wilkinson. The rite will be performed by Mr. J. Y. Downman, and will be preceded by violen and organ wedding music furnished by Mr. Frederick Hoffman and Mr. Wilkinson.

Mr. Wilkinson.

A special feature will be the singing of the Hymn "O perfect Love" Barnby, and the well known "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengren, by the new vested male choir of thirty boys and ten men.

Admission to the church by ticket which can be had from members of the choir, can be had trom .... or the organist.

A Christmas family reunion a social entertainment to intimate friends Mr. Byrd Newton, Miss Nannie Cooke with Robert Bagby, Miss Evelyn Deltrick with Adolph Osterloh, Jr., Miss Roseley Shafer with Philip Carlton, Miss Edna fing commendation from those who are high commendation from those who are Barnes with Mr. Frank W. Tower, Miss high in the profession world, Dr. Howard Barnes with Mr. Frank W. Tower, Miss Nannie Cooke with adolph Osterloh, Jr., Miss Roseley Shafer with Philip Carlton, Miss Edna for those who are high in the profession world, Dr. Howard Scott's was held at the house of Mrs. Kate Fermulsion of cod-liver oil.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Scott & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York:

Chicago Record.

About midnight the guests were ushered into an artistically decorated dining room where supper had been provided. The evening ended with music on the zither, mandolin, bando, and plane of more than ordinary merit. The guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fergusson, Miss Badock, the Misses Cora and Mildred Fergusson, and Miss Josie Payne Mildred Fergusson, and Miss Josie Payne, of Clifton Forge, Va. Among the male friends were: Messrs. Splegel, Willie Byron, M. Greenwald, Haze Roonee, R. George Shackell, L. Greenwald, J. R. Crone, George Carleton and Mr. David Coiner, of Waynesboro, Virginia.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Mande, daughter of Mr. William G. Puller, to Mr. Joseph W. Hundley, Wednesday evening, January 9th, at 6:45 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed at the Seventh-Street Christian Church.

Approaching Wedding.

The marriage is announced of Miss Maggie B. Whitman and Mr. Samuel W. Inge, to take place on Wednesday next, at the residence of the bride-elect, No. Whitman is a popular young lady of Church Hill, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Whitman, and Mr. Inge is an esteemed employe at J. H. Nolte's bakery.

Baltimore Detective Here.

Detective George W. Seibold, of Baltimore, is in the city, on his way to King William Counthouse, to get Charles and Herbert Johnson, the two negroes who created a disturbance on the York River boat Charlotte several days ago, between Baltimore and West Point. Detective Seibold was in the hands of Detective Wren yesterday, who showed him the town.

Shackleford-Lewis.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Dec. 29.-Mr. W. Carr Shackelford, Jr., and Miss Lelia Lewis were married Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Grace Church, Cismont, Albemarle county, the Rev. Valentine Jones officiating. Miss Mary Walker Fry, of Greensboro, N. C., was maid of honor. Misses Mary Barnes Shackelford, Evelyn Mabrey Page. Mary Ruffin Jones and Ellen G. Goss were bridesmaids. Mr. Robert B. Nelson, of Baltimore, was best man, and Messrs. Grigsby Cove Shackelford, Thomas Walker Lewis, Robert Baylor Shackeiford William Douglas Page acted as Arter the marriage an elegant reception was tendered the brida I party "Millwood" by Mrs. F. K. Page, sister of the bride, to which 150 invitations were issued to relatives and friends.

Charl t v lie Public Building. CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Dec. 29.A mass-meeting of citizens at the courthouse last night elected delegates to Washington to set forth the claims of the city for a public building in Charlottes-ville as follows: George Perkins, C. W. Allen, P. B. Barringer, R. H. Fife, W. G. Saltsman, J. W. Walters and C. H.

Reasonably Ex lained.

Casey-I wonder whoi they call thet O'Rouke-Take three or four, an' ye'll be gone to the wurrid Thet's whoi.— Smart Set. drink "absint?"

Etymology.

"I wonder," said the shoe-clerk boarder, "why they call it mistletoe?" "It is so called because the miss'll toe the mark every time she sees a bt of it suspended anywhere," said the Cheerful Idiot.-Indianapolis Press.

Proposal ly Suggestion.

"Mr. Simpson, you said you'd write my name in this Christmas book you gave me." "Yes, Miss Alice, but I'll wait till you